About Us

What's your communications strategy?

Drawing up a communications strategy is an art, not a science and there are many ways to approach the task. call.blast Communications welcomes an opportunity to work with you to design a specific communications strategy based on your organization's key objectives.

call.blast offers the following eight (8) powerful Mass Contact Solutions to achieve your communication strategy objective:

- 1. Unlimited call.blast - Record a message from any phone on our voice system. call.blast calls, sends email and text message to everyone on your distribution list. Reach one person, hundreds, and thousands in minute where they are! call.blast is fully customizable to fit your information collection needs as well.
- 2. Unlimited text.blast - Send text and picture to one mobile phone or thousands in minutes! text.blast also sends email with text message.
- 3. Flash Website - Website with motion, music, video and credit card acceptance that clearly articulates your vision and purpose. Your website will resemble a TV ad rather than a billboard.
- 4. Streaming TV Station - Using the power of the Internet, this service entails live and on-demand video and back office systems that effectively enable our customers to become their own TV station.
- 5. Streaming Radio Station - Using the power of the Internet, this service entails live and pre-recorded audio. A full functioning 24/7 radio station with remote call in support.
- 6. Web Newspaper - Finally, experience the entire newspaper online. No abstract content. Flip thru the pages of a newspaper, book, magazine or newsletter online like you have it in you hands!
- 7. Facebook Fan Page - With over 300 million people interacting daily, Facebook has moved the Internet from Google searches to connecting people who can finally share thoughts, dreams, services and content naturally. Now is the time to have a professional looking Fan Page!
- 8. VideoMail - Sending Video mail allows for the recipient to have an easier time understanding you, your vision or your capabilities, almost as if they are sitting right across from you. VideoMail is a strong alternative to purchasing expensive TV ads. Ask us how?

Video Mail

Sending Videomail allows for the recipient to have an easier time understanding you, your vision or your capabilities, almost as if they are sitting right across from you.

VideoMail eliminates proofreading and worry about how an ordinary email may be read or come across. Say exactly what you want with your tones and expressions heard and seen, so the message comes across clearer.

VideoMail is a strong alternative to purchasing expensive TV ads.
